

B. A. I. Order 207.

United States Department of Agriculture,

BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY.

RULE 1, REVISION 12, TO PREVENT THE SPREAD OF SPLENETIC, SOUTHERN, OR TEXAS FEVER IN CATTLE.

Effective on and after February 16, 1914.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

The fact has been determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, and notice is hereby given, that a contagious and infectious disease, known as splenetic, southern, or Texas fever, exists among cattle in the following-named States, to-wit:

CALIFORNIA, TEXAS, OKLAHOMA, ARKANSAS, LOUISIANA, MISSISSIPPI, ALABAMA, GEORGIA, SOUTH CAROLINA, NORTH CAROLINA, VIRGINIA, AND FLORIDA.

Now, therefore, I, B. T. GALLOWAY, ACTING SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE, under authority conferred by section 1 of the act of Congress approved March 3, 1905 (33 Stat., 1264), do hereby quarantine the area hereinafter described, and do order by this rule 1, revision 12, under the authority and discretion conferred on the Secretary of Agriculture by section 3 of the said act of Congress approved March 3, 1905 (33 Stat., 1265), that the interstate movement of cattle of the area herein quarantined to any point not located in the said quarantined area shall be made only in accordance with the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture for the prevention of the spread of splenetic, southern, or Texas fever in cattle, subject only to the exceptions hereinafter contained.

AREAS QUARANTINED.

The following areas are quarantined for splenetic, southern, or Texas fever in cattle:

FLORIDA.

The entire State of Florida is quarantined.

From the State of Florida cattle shall only be moved or allowed to move to points outside of the quarantined area in accordance with the regulations for immediate slaughter, or for other purposes, as provided by the regulations for dipping, inspection, or certification.

KANSAS.

The following-mentioned area is quarantined: The stockyards of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway at Elgin, Chautauqua County, Kans., and the fenced strip of land extending from said stockyards to the Oklahoma State line.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

During the continuance of the quarantine as herein established no cattle of the quarantined area of any State (except those portions from which cattle may be moved upon inspection) shall be moved or allowed to move to any portion of the quarantined area of another State from which, under the specific provisions of this rule, cattle are allowed to be shipped for purposes other than immediate slaughter upon inspection and certification by an inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry.

In case cattle are moved or allowed to move from the area quarantined for splenetic, southern, or Texas fever in violation of the rule and regulations of this department to prevent the spread of said disease in cattle, such cattle shall be immediately returned to such quarantined area, or they shall be quarantined.

All pens or yards into which cattle from the quarantined area are unloaded, and known as quarantine yards or quarantine pens, shall be considered as quarantined territory, and the reshipment of cattle therefrom shall only be made in accordance with the regulations for the interstate shipment of cattle from the quarantined area.

OPEN SEASON.

During the months of November, December, and January cattle of the quarantined area of any State may be moved interstate therefrom for purposes other than immediate slaughter into the States of Kansas, Kentucky, Arizona, New Mexico, and Oklahoma; those parts of the States of California and Texas not included in the quarantined area; and that part of the State of Missouri south of the Missouri River, if the said cattle are in counties or localities where cooperative tick eradication is systematically conducted, and they shall have been continuously kept on premises known to be free of infection (such knowledge shall have come from an official source or be based on thorough investigation made at the owner's solicitation by an inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry during a period best suited for making such investigation for the purpose of ascertaining actual conditions), and the cattle shall first have been inspected under proper facilities for inspection at the point of origin and found free from infection, and a certificate authorizing the movement issued by an inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry, and in addition to such inspection and certification permission shall first have been obtained from the proper official of the State to which the cattle are destined.

During the period from November 15 of each year to January 31 of the following year cattle of the quarantined area of any State may be moved interstate therefrom for purposes other than immediate slaughter under the above-mentioned restrictions into that part of the State of Arkansas not included in the quarantined area.

During the last 16 days of December, the months of January and February, and the first 15 days of March cattle of the quarantined area of any State may be moved interstate therefrom for purposes other than immediate slaughter under the above-mentioned restrictions into that part of the State of South Carolina not included in the quarantined area.

Cattle of the quarantined area that have been shipped interstate during the months of November, December, January, February, and the first 15 days of March to any State outside of the quarantined area other than those States and parts thereof set out herein shall not be moved into any of the States or parts thereof hereinbefore mentioned within three months of the date of the movement from the quarantined area.

Cattle which are moved interstate from the quarantined area of any State into those States or parts thereof hereinbefore mentioned under certificates from inspectors of the Bureau of Animal Industry shall, when shipped, be transported in cleaned and disinfected cars or boats, and shall not be placed in stock pens which have been reserved for cattle originating in the quarantined area.

FEEDING STATIONS FOR NONINFECTED CATTLE.

Cattle not of the quarantined area, and cattle of the quarantined area when properly dipped, inspected, or certified in accordance with the bureau requirements, may be transported interstate by rail through the quarantined area, and when unloaded therein for rest, feed, and water shall be handled in properly equipped noninfectious pens set apart for such cattle at the Fort Worth stockyards, at Fort Worth, Tex.; the stockyards of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway at Hodge and Denison, Tex.; the stockyards of the International & Great Northern Railroad at Laredo, Tex.; the stockyards of the Texas & Pacific Railway at Baird, Tex.; the Union Stockyards at San Antonio, Tex.; the stockyards of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe Railway at Temple, Tex.; the stockyards of the Fort Worth & Denver City Railway at Stamford and Wichita Falls, Tex.; the stockyards of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad at Sapulpa and Afton, Okla.; the stockyards of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway at Muskogee, Okla., and at such other points as may from time to time be authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture, provided such pens and the platforms, chutes, and alleyways leading thereto have been cleaned and disinfected under the supervision of an employee of the Bureau of Animal Industry and are constructed and maintained in accordance with the specifications set out in the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture to prevent the spread of splenetic fever in cattle.

All cattle handled in such noninfectious pens shall be free from ticks (Margaropus annulatus) and shall not have been unloaded at any point in the quarantined area other than the designated unloading points named herein or hereafter authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture, and they shall be reloaded into the same cars from which unloaded or into other cars which have been cleaned, washed, and disinfected, as required by the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture for the prevention of the spread of splenetic, southern, or Texas fever in cattle, immediately before loading therein and re-shipped as uninfected cattle.

INTERPRETATION.

This rule 1, revision 12, shall be construed in connection with the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture for the prevention of the spread of splenetic, southern, or Texas fever in cattle and is subject to amendment or revision on statutory notice.

Rule 1, revision 11 (B. A. I. Order 199), dated August 14, 1913, effective September 1, 1913, and amendments thereto, shall cease to be effective on and after February 16, 1914, on and after which date this rule 1, revision 12, which for purposes of identification is designated as B. A. I. Order 207, shall become and be effective until otherwise ordered.

The effect of this order is as follows:

The remainder of the State of Tennessee is released from quarantine.

In Texas the remainder of the counties of Foard, Knox, Haskell, and Mitchell and portions of the counties of Throckmorton and Wilbarger are released from quarantine.

In Oklahoma the county of Cotton, and the remainder of the counties of Tillman, Grady, Craig, and Ottawa, and portions of the counties of McClain, Osage, and Delaware are released from quarantine.

In Mississippi the counties of Clay, Jasper, Smith, Scott, and Leflore, the remainder of the counties of Lowndes, Holmes, Madison, Attala, Rankin, Noxubee, Chickasaw, and portions of the counties of Claiborne, Warren, Yazoo, Sharkey, Bolivar, Newton, Grenada, Leake, Monroe, Jones, and Lafayette are released from quarantine.

In Alabama portions of the counties of Jackson and Sumter are released from quarantine.

In Georgia the counties of Morgan and Franklin are released from quarantine.

In North Carolina the counties of Moore, Hoke, Scotland, Robeson, and New Hanover are released from quarantine.

In Virginia the county of Sussex and the balance of the county of Greenesville are released from quarantine.

There has been added a feeding station for noninfected cattle at the stockyards of the Fort Worth & Denver City Railway at Wichita Falls, Tex.

Done at Washington this 20th day of January,

Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.
